

6516207644.txt

I rely on XM radio for weather and traffic updates, when I want the updates, not when a braodcaster wants to give them to me. For me, it's both a safety issue and a convenience issue. Most radio stations I've listened to in the past do not give weather updates throughout the day on a regular basis. As far as traffic information goes, you are lucky if you hit a station when it is covering the traffic.